

ProAir is a medium-sized group of companies with around 40 employees. Business purpose of ProAir-Charter-Transport GmbH is the chartering and marketing of passenger and cargo aircraft and cargo sector. We take over aircraft management in the private as well as in the commercial sector.

The ProAir Group also includes an aviation company licensed by the German Federal Aviation Authority, ProAir Aviation GmbH, with around 30 aircraft on its own AOC.

To strengthen our team at Stuttgart Airport/Filderstadt or in the context of mobile working, we are looking for the next possible date:

Sales Executive Private Jets (m/f/d)

The quality of the services provided is the focus for our customers and that is exactly why we are looking for only the best employees. If you are looking for a task in the fulfillment of which you would like to bring commitment, strategic thinking, high cost awareness and flexibility to the highest degree and always in the service of the customer, then we are looking for you!

Your tasks:

- marketing of our fleet of management aircraft via the common platforms
- Customer Care & Flightsupport: from offer preparation to order processing and supervision
- support of our existing customers, with pleasure also telephone (new customer) acquisition
- correspondence with customers and business partners nationally and internationally
- maintaining our standby service, which requires availability and availability on weekends during shift changes

Your profile:

- completed commercial vocational training, preferably with an aviation company or in the tourism/event industry
- very good knowledge of the German and English language, both written and spoken
- high resilience, good team and communication skills, passion and commitment, flexibility in terms of time
- knowledge in the use of common Windows applications
- knowledge in the use of Avinode and LEON an advantage but not a requirement
- independent service- and goal-oriented way of working
- sense of responsibility and an economical way of acting
- good geographical knowledge

We offer you:

- a permanent, secure job
- possibility of remote work
- 13th month salary
- attractive commission model
- VWL or pension scheme
- very good working atmosphere
- young, committed team
- fresh fruit & coffee/drinks in the office

In addition, our employees have every opportunity and perspective to develop in an economically sound and innovative company. We are happy to support our employees in achieving their goals together! The employee clearly in focus, as our most valuable asset!

Have we aroused your interest?

Then send us your application documents with salary requirements by e-mail to: kariere@proair.de

We are looking forward to meeting you!